Description

This is a short introductory course which is designed to build confidence and benefit those who may have been out of the learning environment for some time or have additional learning support needs such as anxiety or Dyslexia. It is an ideal introduction to the Functional Skills qualification courses.

What will I learn?

This is an introductory course which is designed to build confidence and benefit those who are working towards English Functional Skills qualifications at Level 1 or 2.

You will work on developing reading, writing and communication skills as well as developing the study skills needed to achieve at this level.

Entry Requirements

Skills scan required

What do I need to bring?

Your tutor will let you know at the first session what you will need to provide for the course. We advise you not to purchase anything before your first lesson as we are unable to refund the cost of these in the event of a course is cancelled.

You will need to bring the following to each session:

- Pen, pencil, ruler
- Note paper/pad
- Folder for handouts and notes

What support is available?

You can arrange to see an information, advice, and guidance (IAG) advisor for career guidance and support.

The Discretionary Learning Support Fund (DLSF) can be used to help with travel costs and other expenses, our Learner Experience Team can support you with your application.

If you require any additional support or have any special requirements that you have not already told us about, please inform us as soon as possible by emailing: TACC@thurrock.gov.uk a member of our Learning Support team will contact you to talk about these confidentially.

Please advise your tutor of any medical or health issues that may impact on your learning or your safety whilst attending the college.

What is expected from me?

You are expected to attend all lessons.

If you are unable to attend, you must contact us.

Your tutor will set you homework which you must complete.

Key dates

Courses run mainly from September to February or February to July.

No sessions will take place during college holidays.

Exams will take place towards the end of your course; your tutor will advise actual dates once course starts.

You are required to attend your exam, and if you do not you may have the opportunity to take the exam or retake the course.

Additional information

If any part of this course is online; access to a computer or laptop which uses Google Classroom, would be essential. Learners may have the option to loan a Chromebook for the duration of the course, please discuss this with your tutor at the start of your course.

What can I do next?

You will progress to English Functional Skills Level 1.

You will have the opportunity to enrol on other courses at TACC, such as maths and Multiply courses, vocational courses and digital skills courses. These courses will help you to develop your career and personal skills. Please discuss these options with your tutor.
