Description

This qualification covers how to recognise signs of Dyslexia and strategies to support this.

What will I learn?

This qualification provides learners with an awareness of what is meant by Dyslexia.

This course will outline support and strategies to help those who have dyslexia.

Learners will study the social and emotional behavioural effects of Dyslexia.

Entry Requirements

You will need to come in to Meet The Team - these sessions usually last 3 hours. You will need to book a session via the enrolment button on our website, or by calling 01375 372476.

What do I need to bring?

Your tutor will let you know at the first session what you will need to provide for the course. We advise you not to purchase anything before your first lesson as we are unable to refund the cost of these in the event of a course is cancelled.

You will need to bring the following to each session:

- Pen, pencil, ruler
- Note paper/pad
- Folder for handouts and notes

What support is available?

You can arrange to see an information, advice, and guidance (IAG) advisor for career guidance and support.

The Discretionary Learning Support Fund (DLSF) can be used to help with travel costs and other expenses, our Learner Experience Team can support you with your application.

If you require any additional support or have any special requirements that you have not already told us about, please inform us as soon as possible by emailing: TACC@thurrock.gov.uk a member of our Learning Support team will contact you to talk about these confidentially.

Please advise your tutor of any medical or health issues that may impact on your learning or your safety whilst attending the college.

What is expected from me?

To attend each lesson.

And complete at least 2 hours of homework per week.

Key dates

Courses run mainly from September to February or February to July. No sessions will take place during college holidays.
